

Camden Volunteer Coordinator

Asian Women Lone Parents Association (AWLPA) works to support Asian women who are lone parents, and their children, by providing services that enables them to improve their lives and wellbeing. Through active support we look to empower women to participate in their social, economic, health and physical environment.

We are recruiting for a part-time volunteer coordinator to work in the borough of Camden to support single Asian mums to become volunteers

The ideal candidate would be motivated, organised and empathetic to the situations affecting single Asian mums in London today. They would be bilingual preferably Bengali/Urdu speaking. They would have experience of working with vulnerable women and working with volunteers including support, management, recruitment and training of volunteers. They must be committed, innovative, organised, pro-active and work with a professional manner.

Role: 7 hours a week at £13 per hour from 1st March 2015(possibly sooner subject to interview and satisfactory references) to 1st March 2016

If you are interested please email: director@awlpa.org for application details. For further information or an informal chat please contact the office on 0207 833 8085 or visit our website www.awlpa.org

Deadline for applications: 5pm Wednesday 28th January 2015

Volunteer Centre
Camden